BELLEVUE VETS

By Dick Schaiper

The fall season is here with it's wonderful colors on the trees. This month is also the start of the holiday season with the first holiday being Thanksgiving Day. It makes us think of the very first Thanksgiving that the Pilgrims and Indians had many years ago. Today we get together with our families and friends in much the same way as the Pilgrims did that first Thanksgiving. Just like these early families we bring some kind of food to share with all our family and friends. With all these fine foods and a large plump turkey we enjoy our Thanksgiving meal topped off with some delicious pecan and pumpkin pies for deserts. This is the Thanksgiving we all remember and enjoy.

Although we enjoy our Thanksgiving meal with our families and friends we must think about those who have no family to enjoy this holiday with. Many of them will be setting at home alone in front of their television eating a microwave dinner or sandwich all alone. Even though there are a lot of church groups and organizations who serve hot turkey dinners to the poor and elderly on Thanksgiving Day a lot of the don't have any way or anyone to get them to these places. If you know of anyone like this it would be very good and kind of you to ask them over to enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner with you and your family or even take them over some food for them to enjoy. Sharing with others would be a very good way to make it a true Thanksgiving Day. The Pilgrims did this on that first Thanksgiving Day many years ago. This will also fill your heart with much love for the Christmas Holiday ahead.

The day after Thanksgiving is usually the start of shopping for Christmas but as we know it seems like some of the stores have already started putting their Christmas items out to sell. It seems like the stores start earlier every year. It won't be long before the decorations will be going up on the buildings and houses all around the cities and towns.

On Saturday November 13th our club will hold a Veterans Dance at a cost of $5.00 cover. Bring your friends and enjoy the night. We will also have a Band
